

Castizo Malbec

Malbec from Uco Valley of excellent price quality ratio. The nose presents plums, blackberries, violets, eucalyptus, lactic, and touches of vanilla that shows its brief passage through wood. The palate is elegant and subtle, balanced in acidity and highly polished tannins. Round and versatile. Purple-red color with ruby reflections and medium high intensity.

Winery: FOWines

Winemaker: Fabricio Orlando

Varietal: Malbec

Vintage: 2017

Technical Notes:

Total Acidity: 5.25 g/l

pH: 3.65

Annual Production: 8,800 bottles

Region: Vista Flores, Tunuyán, Uco Valley

Province: Mendoza

Country: Argentina

Alcohol: 14.5%

Pairing Suggestions:

- Grilled ribeye steak
- Vegetable lasagna
- Cheddar, emmental, or other semi-hard cheeses

